Spaces

HISTORIC MEET-UPS SINCE 1887

Famous events and meetings have occurred at The Strater Hotel since 1887. John F. Kennedy gave a campaign speech here, and the 6th Trans-Atlantic Treaty was signed here. The Strater means business when it comes to hosting your meeting, group celebration or conference. And when it comes to romance, there is no better venue.

UNIQUE MEETING AND EVENT SPACES

The Strater Hotel offers three inspiring banquet and meeting rooms — from intimate groups to 100 people. Whether it's a business meeting, conference, wedding, reunion, bridal or baby shower, you will find the perfect spot at the Strater. Our unique meeting spaces are full of history and the inspiring vibe of historic happenings, decisions and announcements. Tech amenities, superior customer service, and expert planning all add to making your event create its own kind of history in rooms that inspire creativity, and are so much more unique than the ordinary hotel.

THE PULLMAN ROOM

1884 SQUARE FEET

DIMENSIONS:
21' wide x
81' long

SEATING:

- 96 banquet
- 100 theatre
- 60 classroom

This elegant large venue is located in the lower part of the Strater Hotel and is perfect for medium to larger type meetings, weddings, and events or celebrations. The Pullman has hosted many types of events including holiday parties to international conferences. Its location makes for the perfect place for private parties and gatherings, and inspiring events.

THE CENTENNIAL ROOM

500 SQUARE FEET

If you're looking for a smaller venue that speaks leadership and authority, the Centennial Room is the perfect location. It's one of the more intimate rooms of the Strater with its regal Victorian décor, and is tucked away from the hustle and bustle of the hotel.

DIMENSIONS:
13' wide x
47' long

SEATING:
